Focus: Red Nose Day School in a Bag

Red Nose Day

- Nicholas suggested a mufti day with red noses in exchange for a voluntary contribution of £1.
- Freya, Amelia, Noah and Poppy to write a letter for Mrs Howarth to email so the school community is aware.
- Poppy suggested a running event to raise money using our new track. We have decided to discuss this further next week as a way of raising funds to support our charity, 'School in a Bag.'
- Children to make Red Nose Day posters – deadline 4/3/19.

Charity

- We have a 'School in a Bag' Assembly being delivered on Wednesday 27th February.
- Poppy, Freya and Nicholas are going to introduce the 'pen pal' scheme as Kat McMullen will take out our pictures with her 85 bags to Ghana on 18th March. She will bring back pictures and share with children via an assembly after Easter.
- The children were really excited about this and everyone wanted to be involved.

What do our core values of:
Communication, Resilience,
Respect and Creativity mean to pupils at Upton Noble?

What is going well:

- Maths and art are great – I get lots of maths done in a lesson (Matilda)
- PE is great because we get lots of fresh air (Daisy).
- I'm loving English because we are working on a new book: 'An Explorer.' (Freya)

Even Better if...

- We could do more learning outside...
